

SPQ REPORT

The XII Portuguese Burns Congress (XII CNQ) will take place in the city of Porto, on the 16th, 17th and 18th of June 2022, at the auditorium of Hospital da Prelada, and will be attended by Congressists from the various national Burn Units and international guests working in the field of burn treatment.

The great scientific quality of this meeting, manifested by the unquestionable prestige of national and foreign speakers, as well as by its multidisciplinary nature, predicts that it will be the biggest national event ever held on the subject of burns. Allied to the trendy and undeniable charm of Cidade Invicta, and the traditional healthy conviviality characteristic of the CNQ, it certainly guarantees the presence of a large number of participants.

The Portuguese Burns Society (Sociedade Portuguesa de Queimaduras – SPQ) is pleased to invite all colleagues, who in their various professions and specialties are dedicated to the treatment of burn victims, to honor us with their presence.
